

April 21, 2009

MOTHER'S DAY WITH MOMMIE DEAREST

A party with drag, prizes and a screening of the cult classic

WHEN: Sunday, May 10, 2009

Doors and bar open at 5 pm

WHERE: VanCity Theatre, 1181 Seymour St. (at Davie)

TIX: $12 (advance)

$15 (door)

A benefit for Out on Screen, Vancouver Pride & Screaming Weenie

VANCOUVER—Screaming Weenie Productions, Vancouver's queer theatre company, proudly presents Mother's Day with Mommie Dearest, a special Mother's Day screening of the 1981 cult classic, featuring Faye Dunaway's now-legendary turn as Hollywood icon Joan Crawford. It will take place on Sunday, May 10, 2009, at the VanCity Theatre, 1181 Seymour St. (at Davie). Doors and bar open at 5 pm.

The event includes a reception hosted by renowned Vancouver drag artist Symone. There will be prizes and giveaways, and an appearance by a special guest.

There will be two screenings of the film, one at 6 pm, the other at 8:30 pm.

Tickets are $12.00 advance, $15.00 at the door. Advance tickets are available at Little Sister's Book & Emporium (1238 Davie St.).

The event is a benefit for Out on Screen, Vancouver Pride and Screaming Weenie.

Screaming Weenie Productions is an award-winning theatre company and registered non-profit society in British Columbia since 2002. Screaming Weenie's mission is to produce and promote queer and sex positive performance, facilitating a stronger queer community by creating and encouraging the performing arts and artists. We strive to create greater positive public awareness and acceptance, through the performing arts, of individuals and groups outside of sexual and gender norms.

For all media inquiries please contact Chris Gatchalian at (778) 847-1974 or chris@screamingweenie.com.